

God in Everyone by Gary Lynn Floyd

Everything beneath the sun
Pure perfection has begun
Out of darkness I have come

Breathes like a harmonium
Shining like a midnight sun
I see God in everyone

Let me be an instrument
May these grapes of pain ferment
Ever be a sacrament

Guided by and heaven sent
Alchemize to Love's content
Knowing God is my intent

God..let me know your name
God...I feel you all around
With your grace

Hold me in the same breath as your word
Oh how you astound me

Rolling like a thunder cloud
Standing for mankind and proud
Peace be still and know me now

Let me live my love out loud
Baptized on a holy shroud
God is in all I Have found

God..let me know your name
God...I feel you all around
With your grace

Hold me in the same breath as your word
Oh how you astound me

God..let me know your name
God...I feel you all around
With your grace

Hold me in the same breath as your word
Oh how you astound me

God In everyone

Out of darkness I have come

I see God in everyone

I'm Saying Yes to Life - Ed Watkins, Jr.

The spirit of love in me is expressing itself right now.

The spirit of joy in me is expressing itself right now.

What are we gonna create today.

The universe is ready to play.

Spirit surely will lead the way, if you just say yes.

Bridge

I'm saying yes, yes, yes, yes to life

I'm saying yes, yes, yes, yes to life

The spirit of life in me is expressing itself right now.

The spirit of life in me is expressing itself right now.

Whatsoever you conceive, if you believe it, you can achieve.

The universe will always agree.

If you just say yes.

Bridge

I'm saying yes, yes, yes, yes to life

I'm saying yes, yes, yes, yes to life

Morning Prayer - Stowe/Good

Before the craziness begins, I breathe deep, & go within.
Here I am, an empty cup, I pray god please fill me up.
Help me see your grand design, Lead me to a quiet mind.
Right now I have all I need, All that's left to do is breathe.

Before the craziness begins, I breathe deep, & go within.
Here I am, an empty cup. I pray god please fill me up.
Help me see your grand design, Lead me to a quiet mind.
One more time I breathe you in, before the craziness begins.

Before the craziness begins, I breathe deep, & go within.
Here I am, an empty cup. I pray god please fill me up.
Help me see your grand design, Lead me to a quiet mind.
One more time I breathe you in, before the craziness begins.
