

Beingness, Oneness, Divine Mind

When you were a child, how did you envision God? Have your ideas about God changed since then? If so, how?

How comfortable are you with the word “God”? Beingness, Oneness and Divine Mind are alternate words for God – what other words for God resonate with you?

What does the idea of God as Principle mean to you? What if anything, do you like or find challenging with the idea of God as Principle?
