

Love Is My Decision - Daniel Nahmod

Love is my decision.
It's up to me to give of my heart.
Love is my decision.
No one else can tell me to start.
And once I decide to change my mind,
God will show me how.
Love is my decision, My decision,
right here and now.

Love is my decision.
It's up to me to learn how to live.
Love is my decision.
No one else can make me forgive.
And once I decide to change my mind,
God will show me how.
Love is my decision, My decision,
right here and now.

Love is my decision.
It's up to me to dance down the road.
Love is my decision.
No one else can lighten my load.
And once I decide to change my mind,
God will show me how.
Love is my decision, My decision,
right here and now.
